Old Business:

1. HRDP Grant for Mississippi Courts – Pruitt reported that we received notification that we got this HRDP Grant for Mississippi Courts. The Courts are a group of 8 cabins on the river near Fairport. The grant is for $4,500 and Jennifer Price is the Historic Consultant on this project.
2. CLG Grant – CLG Grant is open and Koellner will be putting an application in to do another intensive level survey of another neighborhood in West Liberty.

New Business:

1. Meetings To Go – Brase announced that the County will not be renewing the Meetings To Go application but will changing to a new one for the next meeting.
2. Shirts for MCHPC Members – A motion was made by O'Donnell and seconded by Lerch to buy one polo shirt with our logo on it for each of the MCHPC members at a cost of $25 per shirt, pending approval of Muscatine County Supervisors. Motion passed.
3. Q&A with Krissy on Website and QR Codes – Brase introduced Krissy Channon to the group. She is the webmaster for our new MCHPC website. She has asked all of us to send in our community information and pictures so that she can use them to update the website. A discussion was held on QR codes with Allgood telling the group that one of the Wilton sign's QR Code (for McCabe Standard Service Station at 416 E. 5th Street in Wilton) did not work. Brase told the group to send their information to him and he will work with Krissy on this project.

Upcoming Events:

- Next meeting will be Tuesday, August 16, 2026

Meeting adjourned at 1:20 pm.
